

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

LANDER DIRECTORY

A Catalogue of The Table of Contents for Tulle Issues 1 to 141 - 1982-2018

Created and revised by Richard Lander. Expanded by Stephen Black and Gillian Kelly.

Issue 1: October 1982

Ships names and when they arrived

Articles from "Maitland Mercury" re arrival of Agincourt emigrants

Articles from the "Sydney Morning Herald" August 1848 about workers expelled from France and more

Issue 2: February 1983

Our lacemaker ancestors - the French connection [and how much of the that connection "rubbed off" on them? Also, a comment about those who stayed in Calais]

1848 Ship's Complement: The Barque Agincourt

Issue 3: March 1983

Notes on Thomas Whewell (Agincourt), alias Nottingham Jack

The departure of the lacemakers from Calais [Were they really refugees and why some did not leave]

The Irish question

The Bert Archer Story Part 1

Issue 4: June 1983

Elizabeth Simpson's visit and talk

Book Notes: "Calais et Sainte Pierre au XIX Siecle", Albert Vion.

Elizabeth Simpson's donation of "Orange's Directory 1840" for Nottingham

The Computer Indexing Project

Address of Calais Town Hall

The Bert Archer Story Part 2

Issue 5: October 1983

President's First Report - Bob Wilson

Bobbin skipping ropes

Elizabeth Simpson's visit to the Hunter Valley

The Bert Archer Story Part 3

Papers Relative to Emigration -A History of Negotiation Between Calais, London and Sydney [For the researcher – Summary of dispatches between Earl Grey and NSW Governor Fitzroy]

Issue 6: February 1984

Luddites - Marjorie Brown

Book Reviews - "The Family Tree Detective", "Protest and Punishment"

Sydney In 1848

The Bert Archer Story Part 4

Papers Relative to Emigration continued

The Saywells - Part 1

Issue 7: April 1984

Suggestion from Kingsley Ireland re Harpley research

"Living by the Hunter River" - Lindsay Watts and Lucy Bates [Hunter River 1848, The Drowning of Jane Bromhead 1857, John Bromhead and another drowning 1861,1864 A flood undermines John Bromhead's house]

Book Reviews – "Popular Disturbances and Public Order in Regency England" [Luddites and other disorders ...], "The Skilled Labourer" and "The Town Labourer" and "The Village Labourer"

The Bert Archer Story - Part 5

The Saywells - Part 2 [Includes more on the Luddites and machine breaking]

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 8: July 1984

The Bert Archer Story Part 6
The Gaskins [Lacemakers but not of the 1848 kind]
The Bromhead Family Reunion
The Nutts

Issue 9: October 1984

Death of Bert Archer 1907-1984
Report by Chris Sutton [Report of extensive research of the political and economic factors in early 1848]

Issue 10: March 1984

Horner Family - Fairlie emigrants
Charles Dickens in Calais
SMH "Shipping News" on the Fairlie and a newspaper report "The English Workman in Calais" about their request for assistance to emigrate to the colonies.
The Harpley - Enid Bastick [About the vessel's construction, launch and wreck]

Issue 11: June 1985

Widdison/Widdowson/Widderson family per Harpley
Nottingham Goose Fair
Hiram Longmire 1814-1880 (Harpley)

Issue 12: November 1985

List of ASLC resources
The Bert Archer Collection
National Library of Australia Computer Research facilities

Issue 13: February 1986

Report on the Harpley in The South Australian 6 Sep 1848 [Why and how the Harpley immigrants left Calais and a short comment on the ship's voyage]

Issue 14: July 1986

Shipping List - Harpley
Shipping List - Fairlie
Check list for acknowledging sources of information
Machine lace - 1857 Edition, Encyclopaedia Britannica
Machine lace - 1895 Edition, Chambers Encyclopaedia

Issue 15: November 1986

James Woodforth (Agincourt)
Book Review - "The Common People" - Jean Campbell
Summary of talk by Beth Williams
George and John Eastlake - husbands of Frances Saywell
Bert Archer's "Diary" of the Agincourt passage to Australia

Issue 16: February 1987

Report on Harpley reunion, Adelaide - Richard Lander
Family Notables - Request for Contributions
"Those Ships" - Bob Wilson [Details and comments about Fairlie, Harpley and Agincourt]
"Australia Visited and Revisited", An Extract - Bruce Goodwin
Babies bearing ship names and emigrants - Yardley Gubbins

Issue 17: May 1987

"To Morpeth and Beyond" Report on the ASLC visit on 14/3/87
"Australian Rells"- Jean Wright [Thomas Harrison, Maria Stubbs and Elizabeth/Betsy Sergeant]

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Family of John Armstrong and Frances Agincourt West
Dormer [The Dormer Family in South Australia – Lorraine Pratt and Berteena Dormer Kock]
"On Contributing to Tulle" - Richard Lander
Ruddington Framework Knitters' Museum

Issue 18: July 1987

Woodforth Family Occupations – Jean Campbell
"More Fairlie Gossip" [A few reports about Fairlie after its arrival in Sydney in 1848]
Barque and Ship [Vessel types defined]
Agincourt shipping list – 6 October 1848
"Village Life and Customs (1) - Bruce Goodwin
Sex Error on Birth Certificate - Jean Campbell

Issue 19: October 1987

Visit to Nottingham - Barbara Kendrick in 1987
Stubbs Family Research - Margaret Audin [Detailed data on the Stubbs Family in Calais]
"Rare Finds" - Gillian Kelly [Excerpts from books: "Nottingham County Records with Lacemakers of Calais names (not necessarily THE LOC) in 1700s and "The Annals of Nottingham"]
Lacemakers Weekly Earnings 1797-1950
Technical Drawings of Lacemaking Machine donated to the Bathurst Historical Museum by the Brownlows
"The Not So Good Old Days" [A story about child labour from "The Ladies Home Journal"]
Bathing in the (Hunter) River during Prohibited Hours - Lindsay Watts

Issue 20: February 1988

Secretary's Report including comment on the talk given by Mr Wakeman of the Department of Lands Historical Department, A Letter to Vicar of Yardley Gubbins and an Interview by BBC, Northampton – Marjorie Brown
Those Ships, Harpley - Marjorie Brown [Was it really a sea-worthy vessel?]
Ship Definitions - Richard Lander
About Mary Pedder - Jan Balgowan
Elizabeth Simpson offers research materials to the ASLC
First International Congress on Family History
Nottingham Museum of Lace
Lander Family Notables
Village Life and Customs (2) - Bruce Goodwin
Singles on the Agincourt, Eliza Houghton - Lindsay Watts

Issue 21: May 1988

Tom Halls (West family), Rector of St Peter's Anglican Church at St Peters: Launching "the History of the Parish" and Celebration of the 150th anniversary of the foundation of this historic church
Thomas Stanley Summerhayes 1880-1950 [Saywell family]
The Emigration from Calais - Letters to the "Nottingham Review" - Consul Bonham
Village life and Customs (3) - Bruce Goodwin
Family Notable, John Wand - Pam Harvey
Comment on 1848 Agincourt emigrants by NSW Emigration Commissioner
Thomas Whewell "Nottingham Jack"?
Who Was Who in Hunter Towns 1888 [John Bromhead]
Extract from "Framework Knitting" by Marilyn Palmer - Beth Williams [Comment given by John Thurman a stockinger about his income and outgoings]
Bush Family - Marjorie Brown [Saywell Family stories]

Issue 22: August 1988

Lotion for Removing Freckles [Home remedy 1912]
Guidelines for Conducting the Business of the ASLC
Macquarie Woods - Bill Brownlow [A forest planted between Bathurst and Orange]
The Burgess Family [Non-lacemaking family on Harpley includes information about Harpley launch and its maiden voyage]

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Village Life and Customs (4) – Bruce Goodwin
Family Notables, John Bromhead - Lindsay Watts
Life in South Australia in about 1853 - Enid Bastick
Travelling from SA to Victoria 1870 - Enid Bastick

Issue 23: October 1988

Village Life and Customs (5) - Bruce Goodwin
What Became of the Members of the Lander Family who travelled to Adelaide aboard Harpley? - Richard Lander
Extract from "Nottingham Journal", 31 March 1848 [Comment about effects of the French Revolution on trade in England]
List of passengers on either the Fairlie or the Agincourt who married after arriving in Sydney

Issue 24: February 1989

To administer Castor Oil and a Cure for Drunkenness
Nottingham Machine Lacemakers (Part 1) - address by Elizabeth Simpson
Burgess Story (continued) - the Maiden Voyage of the Harpley
Elizabeth Simpson at Gosford - Lindsay Watts
Our Book - Gillian Kelly
Cousins? Which One? - Richard Lander [First, second, whatever cousin ...]
The Happiest Day of Ruby Collins Life - Pat Stewart [Daughter of Isabelle (Saywell) Summerhays]

Issue 25: May 1989

Nottingham Machine Lacemakers (Part 2) - address by Elizabeth Simpson
Dover Marriages [Details of lacemaker marriages in Dover]
Extract from "Nottingham Journal" on Hosiery and Lace Trades
Coach Accidents (from "The Practical Housewife", 1855)

Issue 26: August 1989

Death of Cecil Lander
Nottingham Machine Lacemakers (Part 3) - address by Elizabeth Simpson
Harpley Family Update [Details of Dover marriages and French births of Harpley passengers]

Issue 27: November 1989

Nottingham Machine Lacemakers (Part 4 Final) address by Elizabeth Simpson
Fairlie Passengers [Calais Births, and Dover and Sydney marriages]
Found! - Thomas Homan (passenger on steamer Oregon)
Article from "Bathurst Advocate" (23/10/1848) relating to some of the passengers from the Agincourt - Bruce Goodwin

Issue 28: February 1990

Extract from the "Nottingham Journal" 31/3/1848
The File of Captain Gluyas - another link in Beth Williams search for Thomas Homan
Agincourt passengers born in Calais, or married in Dover, or married in Sydney: (also next issue)

Issue 29: May 1990

"The Lacemakers of Calais" Book (Ed. Gillian Kelly) completed
Extract from "Nottingham Journal" (English Mechanics from France - 1848)
More Births, etc for Agincourt passengers from Calais
Information from Marjorie Brown (feeding the fledgling Australian colonies)

Issue 30: August 1990

Launch of the "Lacemakers of Calais" Book (Ed by Gillian Kelly) -addresses given by Messrs Bill Brownlow and Richard Lander
The Oliver Lowe Story - Gillian Kelly
Where In the World Is Thomas Whewill? - Gillian Kelly

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

More About Relationships - Richard Lander

Family Notables, Ben Robinson -Patricia Stewart

European News - The New Insurrection In Paris ("Times" 26/6/1848 report published in the SMH 10/10/1848 and probably brought to Australia aboard the Agincourt) [See continuation in Issues 31 and 32]

Issue 31: November 1990

Shaken any fresh info from the family tree?

A Family on the move, Pedders - Jan Balgowan [James, Mary and John

Text of Death Certificate of Edward Lander (in French and English) - Richard Lander

Morning Calls - from "Etiquette for Ladies" 1868

Text of Birth Certificate of Rosina Lander (in French and English) - Richard Lander

Father Therry and the Drink Drive Victim

From the Barricades of Paris (continuing the account from the "Times", reprinted in SMH 10 October 1848

Dissertation on the antiquity of fleas

Issue 32: \(Yellow cover, "33" incorrectly handwritten in Roman numerals\): March 1991

Death of Claire Marcia Hawkins, nee Norrie

The New Insurrection in Paris (continuing from the SMH of Oct 10, 1848, European News

The Story of Lace [Copy of a pamphlet published by the City of Nottingham Public Relations Office]

What Else was Happening in 1848? (Excerpts from "the Australian Almanac & Book of Facts 1988")

The Reply to the Lacemakers Petition

Jindabyne (poem by P H S)

Index for the Bert Archer Collection

Animal, vegetable, mineral [Story about Pyramul and the Foster, Ward and Whewell families]

Family Notables: William Cope

Little Bits and Pieces [Bathurst newspaper reports naming Archer, Foster and Ward families]

Issue 33 \(Yellow cover, Issue 33, July 1991

The birthday book of Sarah Vickers - Kerry Vickers

Footsteps on a pioneer wharf -Pam Harvey, Wand Family [Stories about the Morpeth Wharf]

The Late Mrs J Ottaway - An Interesting Personality - Richard Lander

Coal Mining - Jean Campbell

Nottingham Goose Fair

Was there a relative in the colony? - convict records relating to possible lacemaker relatives

To which Tate Family do you belong?

Prompt justice

People on the banks - Bruce Goodwin [Stories about Hill End, New South Wales]

Namby -Pamby Christianity

Notes for the Genealogist - Dormer Family

Felkin on Nottingham People - Heathcoat

Issue 34: November 1991

Summer Holiday.....Lake Conjola, 1970 (a poem by Pat Stewart)

A Family Divided - Doug Webster {Branson Family - some stayed, some migrated}

Amazing Engineering and Workmanship of Machine Lace - Jean Campbell

Among the Passengers of the Fairlie...or All is not as it seems

Maitland Mercury, 11 Sept 1895 - Death of an Old Resident [Jane Bromhead née Swift - Agincourt]

Maitland Mercury, 17 February 1903 - Death of an Old resident [John Bromhead - Agincourt]

The Passing Bell - Lindsay Watts

Iron Bark (a poem by Nancy Howard)

St Pierre de Calais as the Lacemakers knew it - Calais et St Pierre au XIX Siecle (1815-1885), by Albert Vion

Heads of Family, and their wives [Male and female names of those on Agincourt, Fairlie and Harpley]

Single people and their known Australian Marriages [for those on Agincourt, Fairlie and Harpley]

Destitute Asylum Register [Cobb, Bown or Barry, Goldfinch, Hiskey, Harrold, Cope]

For the Genealogist:

Deceased estate files - Beth Williams

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 35: March 1992

"Gold and People -Recollection of Hill End 1920s to 1960s" - book by Bruce Goodwin
Gold! Gold! Gold! – Bruce Goodwin [Stories about Hill End and surrounding locales – Kemshall family]
A Teacher's Tale - Canberra Pioneers [Wainwright, Agincourt]
From Nottingham to Calais [About when did the lacemaker families go to Calais?]
The wreck of the S.S. Maitland [Unfortunately this is not the lacemakers' SS Maitland]
Map of St Pierre de Calais
A letter to William (Branson Family) - Doug Webster
Lacemaker stories are stories from the banks, too
The Rogers Family - another Lacemaker Story - Judy Gifford nee Rogers
Gold Again! [Johnson and Rogers Family, Agincourt]
The Magic of the Machines - Jean Campbell
Machines: Nottingham to France - Gillian Kelly [Taking lacemaking machines to France]
Life in the Factories [in France]
Advertisement from the Nottingham Review, 1810 [... young age no problem ...]
For the Genealogist
 Shaw family, Hemsley family, Needham family
 IGI Microfiche
 Does anyone know anything about the Wells Family?
Map of Hill end the surrounding district

Issue 36: March 1992

Death of Jean Neich, 13 November 1991 (Crofts family)
Death of Margaret Audin – Calais researcher
Calais [Short history]
Those two Maitlands - Lindsay Watts [The two paddle-steamers named Maitland]
Isabel Saywell (Pat Stewart) [A poem]
90th Birthday of Thomas Saywell [A newspaper report 1927]
Jane Susannah Shaw - Kay Radford & Pam Neal [Outline of her later life]
A Calais Connection [Shaw Clarke]
The Children, the Children [Children labour 16-hour days]
Nottingham as seen from The Park, 1830 [An image]
The long arm of the law - Bruce Goodwin [Policing in Bathurst 1850]
A visit to Calais - Pam Harvey [1991]
Sheriff of Nottingham [About the office of Sheriff]
A Different Calaisien Experience - Narelle Richardson [A 1991 visit]
Notes from "A Geographical Dictionary or Gazetteer of the Australian Colonies 1848" by William Henry Wells
[Adelaide, Maitland East, Maitland West]
For the Genealogist
 Saywell, Stubbs and West families
Town Plan of Nottingham in the 18th Century [Diagrammatic map and legend]

Issue 37: October 1992

Gwen Chinner 1914 -1992 [Nutt Family]
Thomas, son of Charles and Jane Crofts - Lola Crofts [Early life in Bathurst]
Those makers of pillow lace - Author unknown, article found by Bruce Goodwin
John Slater - Framebreaker - Beth Williams [A convict sent to NSW]
Picture a Lacemaker – [Images from Wand, Wells Stubbs, Longmire, Kemshall and Ingham families]
Those Who Came - Gillian Kelly [A search for the six lacemaker families rejected from the Harpley]
Frances Saywell - Marjorie Brown [Her life in Australia]
A Likely tale - from Hillendiana, Donald Friend
The Agincourt and a homily - from the Bert Archer papers
For the Genealogist:
 Rebecca Bradshaw, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Wells
 Correction for article in Tulle 34, Heads of families and their wives
 Derbyshire luddites

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Calais certificates
South Australian wills
Does anyone know... [Ford Maddox Brown]

Issue 38: February 1993

Don Bank Cottage [Meeting place of the ASLC]
Anne Fewkes on Nottingham {Connection to Oldham and Shaw Families}
A voyage of the Harpley [Excerpt of Diary of passenger on 1849 voyage to Port Adelaide]
Maria Potter - Agincourt passenger - Jack Clifford
Disgraceful riot at Maitland 1860 [A newspaper report]
The First Graduation Ceremony at The University of Sydney
"No Work, No Bread, No Hope! [1842 poster of common ruin of the working classes]
Thomas and Jane Peet - Robert Noel Peet {Story of the family}
A View of Earlier Justice [in Nottingham]
"Touch of Lace"
The Lace Factory [Construction and set out]
The Life of a Lacemaker [in the factory]
For the Genealogist:
Nottingham 1841 Census Index
French Records
Ford Maddox Brown
Those Missing Lacemakers - William Potter
Rose, Thistle and Shamrock - Iron Steamers to Morpeth

Issue 39: May 1993

The Bonington Family - Anne Fewkes
The Touch of Lace in Dacosta Ave, Prospect (painted Stobie Pole) - Richard Lander
A Voyage of the Harpley - John Chandler [Excerpt of account of a child on the 1849 voyage]
A Letter from Joseph [Joseph James] - Clair Hergstrom
An old map of Nottingham
The Natural Children of Calais - Marjorie Brown, Gillian Kelly and Albert Vion [Illegitimate children]
Mr Edward Cunliffe Hemingway
Lord Byron - Champion for the Stockingers
Those Gates of Nottingham - St Mary's Gate from Kayes Walk [Nottingham streets]
Mildred Brunton - Lacemaker Extraordinaire - from the PSA Journal, June/August 1992
For the Genealogist:
Wand - Spinks - Watts and Hazeldine - Bown - Bell
From the Nottingham Mercury Bonsor (lace manufacturer), Ann Wood
Textile workers in France
The Rose - Sydney to the Hunter, 2nd Agincourt party, 1848 [illustration on back cover]

Issue 40: August 1993

The William Brown Story - Carol Bailey
Elizabeth Drake (aka Bess Drake)
... and Speaking of Marriage - Gillian Kelly [A tale of marriage between an English woman and a French man]
Making Lye and Soap
An Old-Time Diary [Diary of a passenger in Agincourt to Adelaide in 1849/50]
The Matter of Money - money "lost" by lacemakers in French banks
Pigot and Co Directory of Nottingham, 1828
William Saville [1844 Nottingham execution and subsequent stampede and deaths]
Nottingham and the Nonconformists [Parishes, their registers and the dissenters' records]
For the Genealogist:
Archer/Ragg, Foster, Needham, Ward, Wells/Peet
Escape from Drowning - Mr Croft, Bathurst 1849
Surnames from the Methodist Register, St-Pierre to 1848

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 41: November 1993

The Woodforths of Woodhouse - Jean Campbell [A search for past family in the records and the villages]

The Potters of Calais [Makers of pottery in Calais]

Gleanings on a Lacemaker - Marjorie (Pops) Shirtley - Granddaughter of Maria Potter (Agincourt)

The Bedchamber Mystery - C. S. Forester

Thank you, Normandy - a story about Sarah Wells and her family - Mignon Preston [pp16-17, 22-24]

Adelaide Lander [Birth on Harpley and her death at 9 months in Thebarton]

From Whence They Came – a newspaper report on the Harpley migrants.

Bobbins and Carriages - Gillian Kelly [What are they and how do they fit into the lacemaking story?]

For the Genealogist

William Brown, John Freestone, Thomas Selby, John Sweeney

Basford Parish Directory 1832-1833 - William White

Calais Contacts in the 1840s: Machine owners, Teachers, Midwives, Frequent witnesses to English births

Issue 42 \(Vol. 13, number 1\): February 1994

From the Nottingham Notebook, 1848 [A diary of some local events]

Royalty, Knitting and William Lee [and his connection with the unsympathetic Queen Elizabeth I]

Report to the Society on Visits to Calais and Nottingham - Rev. Tom Halls

The Long Farewell by Don Charwood- a book review by Doug Webster

The Lace Manufactories of Old Calais - a Map

Relief by Colonisation, a Nottingham Immigration to South Africa - Gillian Kelly

Lace and Normandy - Mrs Fanny Palliser

For the Genealogist

Kettlebrand, Widdison, Crofts, Holmes

Lacemaker connections from the Victorian Pioneers CD-ROM series

The Family of George Elliott, Missing Lacemaker

Issue 43 \(Vol. 13, number 2\): May 1994

The Luddites - Richard Lander [A short history]

Bendigo - A Story of William Abednego Thompson - John Sheffield

One Branch of the Tree of the Family Dunk - Harold Rowe [William Dunk and his family]

Petition to the Cape

An Instance of Rashness [a story about John Branson]

Nottingham - an old map

Chronology of Nottingham [400s to 1848]

Perilous Seas Claim 21 [Wreck of a paddle steamer named Maitland].

Bathurst Free Press - notes on Oliver Lowe, Dinner to Mr Rogers, Joseph West

Patrick Storen, 1824-1881 - Joseph Jannan [Husband of Sabina Barnett]

From the Abbot Files - Charles Hibberd

An Unconventional Artist - George French Angas

For the Genealogist

Cornelius Crowder, John Hemingway, John Irons

Transported from Nottingham - Doug Webster

Letter to the Editor - Judy Gifford [re Nottinghamshire Marriage Records]

Missing lacemakers

The Phillimore Indexes

The Goldfields of Western New South Wales 1851 [Back cover]

Issue 44 \(Vol. 13, number 3\): August 1994

A Link with the Past - William Burrows Bradshaw [Tales of an early Adelaide migrant in South Australia and the Castlemaine diggings]

The Third Child of Thomas and Sarah Wells, Rebecca Bradshaw - Bronwen Thomas

Fearghus O'Connor - John Sheffield [Leader of the Chartists]

Suffragettes and South Australia - Christine Finnimore

A Tourist in France, 1848 [Review of an English guide of travel to and within France in 1848 including descriptions of café life in Calais]

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Black is the Colour of Despair - Gillian Kelly

Review: A Cargo of Women - Doug Webster (a book re the convicts of the Princess Royal)

Lost and Found: Sumners and Peets and descendants of George Sumner and Mary Kirk - H. Kirkbright
For the Genealogist

The Fairlie and village of Yardley Gobion

The Bathurst Contingent and the Holy Trinity Church at Kelso

Issue 45 (Vol. 13, number 4): November 1994

A new numbering system for Tulle

ANGAS and ANGUS - an editor's note

Living in the '50s from "The Parramatta River and Its Vicinity, 1848-1861" by W S Campbell

A footnote to A Tourist in France, 1848 - Doug Webster

The Removalists - from "The Hill End Story, Book 1" by Harry Hodge

Lacemakers link with an "Unconventional Artist" - Kingsley Ireland [Longmire connection with George French Angas]

Quorn, SA - Gillian Kelly

The Barrier Miner 7 September 1915 - statement by Mrs Hart

The Adelaide Observer - undated obituary [William Hall]

My Wandering Shepherds - Doreen Towle

As Poor as a Stockinger - Gillian Kelly [A story of the stockingers, their trade and their difficult lives]

The Tale I Have to Tell! - Gillian Kelly [A search for a Branson ancestor]

Nottingham Notables: William Hallam Pegg - Gillian Kelly [Tracking down a painting of a framework knitter and its connection with the Branson family]

Issue 46 (Vol 14, number 1): February 1995

Extracts from Victorian Police Gazette

Sixty years of shipping: a hundred years ago - from The Adelaide Observer 16 September 1899

Memory lane - Lindsay Watts (Bromhead Family)

Memories of the Stevens family - Doreen Taylor

Nottingham and Ale - Nottingham directory, 1863

Maps of St Pierre in 1850 & 1990

Sydney in 1848 part 1: The arrival - DBW

Nottingham Notable: D H Lawrence

Australia at last - Gillian Kelly

Letters to the Lacemakers

Excerpts from letters to Doug Webster

For the Genealogist

Yardley Gobion and the Fairlie

Leads from the newspapers of the day – Richmond, Fewster, Wells/Parsons, Forbes/Peet

Members request: Scothern

Issue 47 (Vol 14, number 2): May 1995

Sydney in 1848 part 2: the trip to Bathurst - Doug Webster

Sydney in 1848: suggested further reading - Doug Webster

Morialta - Gwydir - Kate Foy

The State of the Trade: some notes on bobbinet trade, 1831

An awful visitation – A Storm, London Times July 9, 1845

Dissenting Meeting Houses - from Orange's Directory, 1840

Calais ... from where to where

Stubbs Migration – Family chart

Children and Lace - London Times, October 1840

An apology to Bob Saywell

A Nation is a family

Letters to the Lacemakers

Were members of your family inventors or patentees?

For the Genealogist:

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Certificates from St Margaret's parish, Leics
French certificates
The Galleries of Justice, Nottingham
Birth certificate of Robert John Harrison
The Back Cover – copy of a piece of lace

Issue 48 (Vol. 14, number 3): August 1995

Some early Lacemaker Arrivals (in Australia)- Doug Webster
The Elnor Sisters - Carol Bailey
Calais...From 1830 to 1840 - Gillian Kelly
Transport Links: England 1830 - Jean Campbell
London Times, June 21, 1831
The Emigrant's Friend or Authentic Guide to South Australia
The Family of George Elliott
Don't Believe Everything You are Told (Homan)- Beth Williams
For the Genealogist:
Extracts from Pigot's directory, Leicestershire, 1830
Again, was there a relative in the colony? Possible relations of Immigrants, 1848-1851
Marriage Licence Bonds in Nottingham
Translate your French certificate - Lyndall Lander
The Lacemakers of Caen - taken from "Abroad" first published in 1882

Issue 49 (Vol. 14, number 4): November 1995

Letters from Adelaide - John Freestone
The Barque, John, Book Review - Doug Webster
Rescue of a Shipwrecked Crew - the wreck of the Fairlie
Over the Hills and a Long Way Off – The Lennox Bridge and the Bathurst Road
Leicestershire, Lacemakers and the Military - Jean Campbell
Coals to Newcastle [re William Hemsley]
Joshua Oldfield and Jane Bull - Richard Halliday
Past Times
Methodism and St Pierre
Typhus Fever in Maitland - Gillian Kelly
Calais 1840 to 1848 - Gillian Kelly
For the Genealogist
Transported for Machine – Breaking
Thomas Scotten
Hosiery and Lace Trades: Richard Wells, Wright and Crofts
Other Arrivals: General Hewitt, Walmer Castle, Bermondsey, Unnamed vessels 1849
The Last Will and Testament - explanations of terms

Issue 50 (Vol. 15, number 1): February 1996

Notes to Letters from Adelaide
Letters from Adelaide, part 2 - John Freestone & Marlene Kilminster
Riverton, South Australia
In Quarantine (book review) - Doug Webster
Grave Situation [Ellenor Gascoigne and William Brown and his wife Lydia]
Identification, Please!
Entrepreneurs or Villains? - Doug Webster
Poor rates in Nottingham – Notts Newspaper, 29 May 1847
A Reader's Query
Taking the Lacemakers back to Calais
Fun and Games - Calais et Saint-Pierre au XIXe Siecle by Albert Vion
Thomas Johnson, Engineer
For the Genealogist:
On Convict Lines – James Crofts, Francis Brownlow

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Walking in their footsteps part 1 - To Bathurst

Issue 51 (Vol. 15, number 2): May 1996

Nottingham in 1848 - Doug Webster
The Rights of Women (or Moses' Instructions) - J D Lang
Mildred Elsie Brunton - M Vaughan
Mutual Aid Societies & the Oddfellows
Bromheads, Swifts, Taylors & the Agincourt
Who Calls for the Good Old Days?
Let's Celebrate 1848 - 1998
Mary Rushton and Mr & Mrs Hopkins - C Litchfield
The Best Nottingham Could Do
Early Nottingham Imitation Laces – William Vickers
For the Genealogist:
 Strays
 From Joel Brismalin in Calais
 Marriage certificate of Victor Helmsley & Francoise Devot
 Holmes Family History Society
 Reader's queries
 The Inhabitants of Saint-Pierre from the 1831 Census

Issue 52 (Vol. 15, number 3): August 1996

Trade, Commerce and Money – Nottingham Review 31 March 1848
Nottingham and Calais at last! - Marion McLeish
Conviction for Playing at Marbles on Sunday
The Church of England in Calais and St-Pierre
The Plot Thickens - Gillian Kelly
Lace-Making by Machinery- Great Industries of Great Britain 1878, David Bremer
The Stapleford Windows - Evol Watkins
Convict Lines - Doug Webster
For the Genealogist
 The Inhabitants of Saint-Pierre from the 1831 Census (concl)
 Readers' queries – Judy Gifford
 Australia's Immigration Wall of Honour

Issue 53 (Vol. 15, number 4): November 1996

Let's Celebrate 1848-1998
Our Lacemakers - Thomas Goldfinch and Ann Newing - Lionel Goldfinch
Taking a Cook's Tour [Story about Thomas Cook's life]
Letters from America - John Morley, William Pole and David Woodhouse
Women's Work [in the Lace Industry]
R Granger and Sons [Lace manufacturers in Nottingham]
Register of the Freemen of Leicester 1826
William Lee Rewritten - Great Industries of Great Britain 1878, David Bremer
There is No Substitute for Quality [Arnott's Biscuits]
Stapleford [Nottingham]
For the Genealogist
 The inhabitants of Saint-Pierre from the 1841 Census [List of names]

Issue 54 (Vol. 16, number 1): February 1997

News from France - Doug Webster [Notes of newspaper reports from France in 1820 1825 and 1830]
A Yard of Potatoes [Excerpts from the diary of William Norfolk]
Death of Mr Frederick Robert Archer, J.P. [Obituary 1941]
Lacemakers to be Discovered - more on ship Yardley Gubion
Thomas Selvy – Nottingham Mercury 1831 [Missing boy]
A Cab Ride (Stories from Old Sydney - Charles H Bertie)

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

A Begging Letter from the Editor

Probable connections between the Potter, Brown, Webster and Evans Families

More Letters from Adelaide, December 1848

The Oldest Postage Stamp in the World

Shepherding in Australia

School Days in 1912 - Doreen Taylor

Fashionable Spring Goods (received from the Harpley 1848)

Census of St Pierre 1846 [List of names]

Issue 55 (Vol. 16, number 2): May 1997

George Armytage – First lacemaker in Calais - Dr Christian Borde
The Theatre Evil

Where did those Homans go? Tillimbi - Paterson - Beth Williams

A Thank You Letter - Gillian Kelly

Children of Working Mothers 1842 - D Wardle

What's in a Name? - Lindsay Watts

From the Secretary - Carolyn Broadhead

Angaston SA. May 2nd, 1848 - Richard Rodda

This Little Piggy [Sydney Hospital statue]

Cover Girl [Bonnetts of the Courgain fisher women]

For the Genealogist:

The last of Nottingham's potters

Census secrets [John Freestone, Joseph James, Alice Bradbury, Willian Bradbury, Sarah Towlson]

Issue 56 (Vol. 16, Number 3): August 1997

Well Suited to the Colony - sales commence

Letter from France - Stuart Dunshea, a descendant of James Nutt

Nottingham Notable - Samuel Derry, MC, DSO

The First Australian Play - Kate Foy

Book Review - The Migrant Ship Harpley. 1847-1862

The Ship Harpley and Courtenay Fowell

Shipping News [Lacemaker names on other ships to Australia]

The Kemshalls and the Suttors [at Brucedale]

The Crown of England

Stop Press - Incorporation of the ASLC on 7 August 1997

The Frenchs Forest Newsletter - Bruce Goodwin

For the Genealogist

Register of Members' Interests 1996 -1997

Issue 57 (Vol. 16, number 4): November 1997

Theo Saywell – Bob Wilson

Committees [A poem by Anon]

Nottingham Notable: Arthur Jepson 1915-1997 - J Gifford

Currency lads and lasses - from B Goodwin

The Stirrer - Emma Head [Emma Skipworth-Rodda]

Working for William

The Society Celebrates 1998, for your information

Kate, the sister of Ned, and the Lacemakers - Gillian Kelly

The Bulletin and its editor - J E Archibald

Martin & Co advertisement in London [Shippers of goods to South Australia]

William Felkin – Gillian Kelly

For the Genealogist:

The Lander Connection

Little Nottingham beyond the seas – Gillian Kelly

The Bathurst Advocate [Excerpts from 1848]

New Members

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 58 (Vol. 17, number 1): February 1998

23 February 1848 and the news of the day [from various English, French and Australian newspapers dated 22 February 1848]

Edward A Austin: From Bavaria to Bathurst - Jack Austin

Cover Notes [Comment on the journal's cover images]

Your Lacemakers' Story in Stitch - The Sampler - Lyndall & Richard Lander

Footsteps of the Lacemakers [John Wand, James Woodforth, Elizabeth Brown, Sarah Potter, Thomas Stubbs and Thomas Saywell]

A Thoroughly Modern Lacemaker - John Saywell

Well Suited to the Colony - its cover story

Some Early Patentees

In 1848 in Australia [Interesting facts]

A soldier's Life in NSW - United Service Magazine 1838

For the Genealogist:

Some Baptisms solemnised in the Parish of Stapleford 1816 and 1837

Stapleford Marriages from the IGI

A marriage at St Mary Nottingham 1808

Issue 59 (Vol. 17, number 2): May 1998

From the Right Worshipful Lord Mayor of Nottingham [Greetings to ASLC]

Calaisiens and Lace - Michel Caron, St Pierre

Letter from Australia - Nottingham Review, 1850

Phone Chatter causes complaints 1899

1914 -1918 [Lacemaker names in Roll of Honour]

William the Fourth [Paddle steamer replica]

About People [William Gascoigne, Harriet Davis, Mary Ann Hiskey, John Wand, Sarah Stubbs, George Stubbs]

Address given at the Launch of "Well Suited to the Colony" - Gillian Kelly

The Lace Working Party – Esther Potter

For the Genealogist

Barry Holland: Researcher

Lacemakers and the Internet

Lacemakers on the Net

Internet sites to explore

New members

Lost, Stolen or Strayed [Agincourt lacemakers still missing]

Greetings from England [on rear cover]

Issue 60 (Vol. 17, Number 3): August 1998

Professor Ken Dutton and things French

The challenge of change - Richard Lander

Report to the Society on a brief visit to Calais, May 1998 - The Reverend Tom Halls

Bereavements

Translator revealed

The Harpley [Comment and stories about Harpley]

Celebrate the Harpley

The Great Get Together

Walk the walk at Morpeth

Harpley miscellany [Clarke, Sansom, Hibbert, Smith, Davis, Barnett, Parsons, Crowder, Dormer, Goldfinch, Peat, Revell, Sweeney, Widdison]

Cover story - Tulle August 1998

The Wainwrights and Mr Maurice of Binda, NSW

Life is full of coincidences – M Brown

Anne [Fewkes] in Australia - Judy Gifford

Another's Sesquicentenary [Education in Australia 1848-1948]

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

For the Genealogist

Smith brothers of Hyson

Lacemakers on the net

Email addresses for members and friends

Lost, stolen or strayed from the Harpley

Whatever happened to Charles? [Steven, Donisthorpe and Richmond]

Issue 61 (Vol. 17, number 4): November 1998

Douglas Branson Webster – ASLC Obituary

So your forebears thought of emigrating? - Sydney's Emigration Journal, 27 October 1849

Celebrating the Harpley

Life aboard an immigrant ship - Richard and Lyndall Lander, October 1998

Win a Framed Bobbin

Aborigines in Nottingham in 1868 - Ann Fewkes, Nottingham

Helene Dormer Gibson

Louis Philippe of France - British Quarterly, February 1848

The Ranters in Shelford, Nottingham - Ann Fewkes, Nottingham

For the Genealogist:

Lacemakers found: Clarke, Davis, Street, Robinson, Hemsley, Dunk, Lee and Strong

Were your family Baptists?

On the net

Dover marriages [Dates and names]

From the 1881 Census, Nottingham – Peet, Holmes

New members

Issue 62 (Vol. 18, number 1): February 1999

Editorial - Gillian Kelly [Published Family Histories]

The Editor's indulgence [New members of the Kelly Family]

Louis Philippe arrives in England - London Times, March 1848

Irene Mayer – Obituary by Kentley Mayer

Samuel Strong 1809 -1881: Calais Lacemaker - Ray Strong

A note for posterity: William Burton - Nottinghamshire Historian No 21, Summer 1978

Giower yer mardy ode thing [Nottingham accents]

The Lace Place – The Blackburn Collection of lace

Heathcoat's men – List of workers' names

Another Heathcoat - The Daily Telegraph, London

The lace trade - the Nottingham Journal

Cover note: Nottingham Castle

Lille - Lille, Roubaix and Tourcaing in the Belle Epoque

Sarah Holmes - Gillian Kelly

Arrival of the Navarino, Adelaide, SA, 10 November 1848, Shipping intelligence, Passengers

The Parish of St Peters, Nottingham

For the Genealogist:

Murphy was an Optimist!

Readers' queries – Denning, Saywell, Ragg, Nutt

Birth place: Lille

The Australian War Memorial Research Centre

Issue 63 (Vol. 18, number 2): May 1999

Don Bank in trouble - Sydney Morning Herald, 3 April 1999

Mary Rushton - Denise Patterson

The Pentrich Revolution - F Weightman

Goulburn

Society in Australia during the goldrush – Stroud Free Press, 14 May 1852

Getting to those goldfields – Newcastle Herald, 17 March 1999

The gathering of the Brownlow clan

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Still reaching Australia all over - Kath Blake
Four funerals and a wedding – David Millott, Hucknall, Nottingham
Australia's early immigration schemes
Sydney's street names
For the Genealogist:
Intriguing clues
English burials at Calais - 1831 & 1832 {List of names}
Website – The beginning of the ASLC website
Useful Address: Familysearch

Issue 64 (Vol. 18, number 3): August 1999

Glimpses of the Eighteenth century
The Law of the day - extracted by David Millott
Cover story
Rail travel in France – The Buddicom 1843 from Beth Williams and John Ruskin's rail journey in 1848
The Sneinton Mill - from an article by Dennis Plowman
Ben Kemshall had a relative in the Colony
The Harpley – image reprinted from the Centenary Report, Singleton Medical Welfare Centre
This is the Harpley [Comment on some of its voyages]
Modern descriptions of ancient trades
Nottingham Review, 21 April 1848, in which the condition of Nottingham is described
Nottingham Review, 27 May 1842: Rural police again
STOP PRESS: Barbara Kendrick
Marriage: West-Crofts
For the Genealogist:
Shepshed Cemetery Register [List of names and dates]
Harpley gossip
Help Please
Murphy's Law
Miniature ships
ASLC at home on the 'net

Issue 65 (Vol. 18, number 4): November 1999

James Smith of Calais - Kathryn Mooney
Nottingham Evening Post: Books laced with history - from David Millott
As poor as a stockinger- Family of Edward Slack, Arnold, Children's' Employment Commission, 1842
For South Australian settlers - SAHGS
Enter Thomas Saywell - Craig Williams, Theo Saywell, ed Gillian Kelly
Smuggling rules
Lest We Forget - Australian War Memorial [Branson, Freestone, Foster, Goldfinch, Hemingway, Hemsley, Kirkbright, Lander, Longmire, Rogers, Saywell, Shirtley, Stringer, Widdison]
For the Genealogist:
Descendants of William Parsons
From the 1881 England Census: Hingley/Mees
Of All the Mad Pursuits - Mignon and Trevor Preston
Census Index 1841, Calais et St-Pierre [List of surnames]
Ode to spell checker!

Issue 66 (Vol. 19, number 1): February 2000

Three books to yearn for: "Lace and Gold" by Bruce Goodwin, "Calais et la Mer" by Dr Christian Borde,
"Nottingham 1897-1947" compiled by Douglas Whitworth
The Bells of Saint Saviours, Goulburn
The Pentrich Revolution and its Australian links - Steve Wright
The Harpley was built on the Tamar - Gillian Kelly
Harriett Davis married William Foy - Kate Foy
What if history is bunk? - Gillian Kelly

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

I didn't know that - Richard Lander
Thank you, Kingsley Ireland
Riverton, SA - from the Official South Australian Gazetteer and Road Guide, 1869
Nottingham Review, 27 May 1842: Rural police again
Charley Brown rules - Evol Watkins
Site fit for a new Millennium
For the Genealogist:
Wish list
The family of Joseph Clarke
The family of John Davis
Tongue -Dubout
Imprisoned!

Issue 67 (Vol. 18, Number 2), May 2000

Catching up with the Cosways - Carolyn Broadhead
Wells Family Reunion
The Case of the Disappearing Elliots - Gillian Kelly & Brenda Tanner
Calais - Her Museum of Lace & Fashion
Nottingham Review, 4 April 1848
The Loughborough Job - The Incident at Heathcoat's Mill
Mutual Benefit and the Hope Lodge
Fashion Frolics
For the Genealogist
Scots & Catholics in South Australia - Judy Elliott
Radford - The Baptisms of Children of Lace Workers [Names and dates]
On the Web - Useful Sites

Issue 68 (Vol. 18, Number 3), August 2000

General William Booth - Salvation Army - Steve Artus
Book Review - The Steel Bonnets, George MacDonald Fraser - Mignon Preston Carrickmacross Lace
Louis Orleans
Medical Matters
What's In A Name?
Bromhead Enquiry from Ian Flynn of Hertfordshire
Maitland Pioneer Register and The Lacemakers
Cosetex Lace – An interesting website
Quakers and Nottingham - Rev. Patrice Sessions
Tracing the Family BOWN - Gillian Kelly
Marriages of Note 1814 -1845 [Lacemaker marriages]

Issue 69 (Vol. 18, Number 4), November 2000

A Glimpse into the lives of the Bromheads - Ian & Rachel Flynn
The Saywell Saga - Kate & Howard Marriott [includes a family chart]
Loyal Paterson Union Lodge No. 4225 M.O. - Beth Williams
Ballooning in Nottingham
A Knitted Shirt - Janet Hardy
Mothers
Nottingham Snippets
France Revels in Miracle of Calais - Anne Swardson
For the Genealogist
The End of Genealogy as we know it?
Sansom [Family of John Sansom and Maria Stubbs]
Twist Song

Issue 70 (Vol. 19, Number 1), February 2001

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Discovering the Goldfinch Family - Lionel Goldfinch

William Cope - Harpley Passenger - Ruth Broad

Rare Indeed - our original book for sale for A$45

In search of John Davis

Searching for a South Australian Record? (Dehane's Almanac, 1853)

The Courgain

Communications - Richard Lander

The Saywell Saga - A Response - Bob Wilson

Inscriptions in the Saywell Family Bible

The Knitting Machine

For the Genealogist

From the Nundle Oddfellows Subscription Books 1868-1883 [Powell and Roe]

The Lander/West Connection

The Bown family

Smith Family Tradition

Issue 71 (Vol. 19, Number 2), May 2001

Death of Betty Goodwin, née Parslow

Never ever completely ignore the family rumour! - Gillian Kelly

The Stevens Family of Maitland - Robin Gordon

The Landers of the Sea and Lace - Richard Lander

Another New Life – George Donisthorpe and Family - John Donisthorpe

Brothers and Sisters Have I None - Gillian Kelly

Found: Arthur John Clarke - Harley Parker

William Henry Longmire

Joseph James

And to keep it all in perspective...

Issue 72 (Vol. 19, Number 3), August 2001

Bruce Selwyn Goodwin, 1916-2001 - Gillian Kelly

Express Journal - Adelaide, 21 May 1933 [Holmes and Pepper]

Saint Pierre as the Lacemakers Knew It [Albert Vion]

Right Family - Wrong Joseph [Bromhead Family] - Lindsay Watts

John Clarke - Petitioner - Harley Parker

Discovering Harriet Davis - Kate Foy

The Way it Was in 1500 - Old Customs and Sayings - Unknown

For the Genealogist

William Saywell's Headstone - Ann Fauquet

Richmond & Barnett Families - David Squirrel

Calton Brothers - Joan Fry

For the Technically Minded [Websites to explore]

Issue 73 (Vol. 19, Number 4), November 2001

Thebarton and the Lacemakers

Federation, Peoplescape and John Wainwright - Gillian Kelly

Eyam and the Plague

Wells family Reunion, Buninyong, Vic., 13-15 October 2000 - Report by Bronwen Thomas

Cover Story - Hannah Houghton - Kingsley Ireland

Hayes Ingham & Harriett Davis

Sailing Ships for the Uninitiated [Tour Guide for the Polly Woodside]

Cheque-ing out for Confidence - Mike Matthews, Nottingham

There was a relative in the Colony - Judy Gifford

John Stephens v the Friends of Samuel Stocks

For the Genealogist

Children's Employment Commission Report, Nottingham 1842

Buninyong Cemetery, Grave Sites of the Wells Family

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Am I really Me? - Unknown

Issue 74 (Vol. 20, Number 1), February 2002

To Ease the Pain - things to make you go hmmm... - Robin Gordon
Longmire Matters
Smugglers & Smuggling - Gillian Kelly
Do you have AAADD?
Wells' Family Reunion - Part 2 - Mignon Preston
Gol Gol Reunion (Wells Family)
John Ingham - Sad Death by Drowning - Maitland Mercury, 10 Jan 1882
Extract from an Original Emigrants Letter (W & E Tonkin)
Journey of the Champion Stage (John Marfleet)
For the Genealogist
 Found: Julia Elliott, daughter of George
 British Burials in Calais Sud Burial Ground [Long list of dates and names]

Issue 75 (Vol. 20, Number 2), May 2002

ASLC affiliates with The Royal Australian Historical Society
Edmond William Brownlow, 1914-2002
Thoroughly Modern Lace Runner - Carole Bell, Denver, Colorado, USA
James Henry Clarke & the Bendigo Advertiser
The Late Fatal Accident at Long Gully - Harley Parker
What is a Chevener? - Jill Elias, Nottingham
Mary Selina Shore - Barbara Manchester
Book Review - Primrose Past - The 1848 Journal of Young Lady Primrose
Henry watts is Found - Glenda Key
The Wrongs of Woman - Charlotte Elizabeth Tonna, 1790-1846 [Work and life of Lace Runners]
Shipping News - Richard Lander
Nottinghamshire County Asylum - Richard Lander
For the Genealogist
 Duck – Barsby, Mary & Humphrey Hopkins and Mary Rushton, Joseph Clarke, Lucy Wainwright and her
 Dame School
 British Burials in Calais Sud Burial Ground Continued [Long list of dates and names]

Issue 76 (Vol. 20, Number 3), August 2002

Celebrating Twenty Years – ASLC
Associate Professor Carol Liston
Medical Matters in Victorian Times [May 2002 address by Dr John Fluit]
South Australia Bound 1848 - Marion McLeod
Joseph Clarke, Sarah Timons & Kingsley Ireland - Kingsley Ireland
EOI in Family Reunion for Descendants of George & Rebecca Somerville
News from Calais in 1848 - Joel Brismalin
The Wrongs of Woman (continued) [Lace Runners]
Saywells and the Titanic (Di on the Internet)
Think on It - Mignon Preston
The Story Tellers (Author Unknown)
Who are we? A Guide to Developing a Picture of those around us. - Richard Lander
For the Genealogist
 British Burials in Calais Sud Burial Ground (continued) [Long list of dates and names]
 A Very Useful Net Address (<http://www.rat.de/kuijsten/navigator/>)

Issue 77 (Vol. 20, Number 4), November 2002

The Birth of a Society – Australian Society of the Lacemakers of Calais
The Bert Archer Story - From Bert Archer's research, 1983
Pedder - perhaps the most recognised of all the lacemaker names - Naomi Pereboeff
And the Rest is History - Herbert Ingram

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Facsimile of the first ever issue of Tulle

Who Took the Lace Machines to Calais? - Gillian Kelly

Letters from Home - Ann Wallis, niece of Miriam Branson

The Wrongs of Woman (continued) [Lace Runners]

For the Genealogist

Marriage Stray (James Lowe to Amy Hazard), Mount Sorrel, Bromhead Update (Lindsay Watts)

Church Bloopers to Make You Smile

Issue 78 (Vol. 21, Number 1), February 2003

Death of Doreen Nicholson (Shore family)

Children's Employment Commission Report, 1842 - William Osborne

The Missing Sarah Bromhead - Fran Myles and David Bailey

Nundle and the Lacemakers - Gillian Kelly [Roe, Robinson and Powell]

St Dunstan in the East, London

Just Browsing - Local News section of the Nottingham Journal, 1848

The Wrongs of Woman - Continued [Lace Runners]

The Bad Old Days [Interesting facts of a bygone age]

Digging Into Your Family History - Richard Lander

For the Genealogist

John Hemsley

Useful Websites

Burials Calais Sud 1840 -1841 (continued) [List of dates and names]

The Bathman's Appeal - Merry Warden

Genealogy Today – a website with jokes for genealogists

Issue 79 (Vol. 21, Number 2), May 2003

Allan Robert Stanton - a Lacemaker's Grandson - Julie Kersie

Another Link in the Saywell Chain - James Saywell [Brother of George and Jasper] - Alan Saywell

The Census for Nottingham - 6 June 1841 [Lacemaker names and details]

The Wrongs of Woman - Continued [Lace Runners]

Another Nundle Family - The Wands - Margaret Hunt

The Dangers of a Trip to Paris - Margaret Audin

Lacemakers & Hosiers in France - Margaret Audin

Johnston, Rhode Island & Nottinghamshire - Lois Sorensen

Michael Denman, William Sykes & Thomas Bakewell

To Keep You Up to Date on Matters Medical [Comical definitions of medical terms]

For the Genealogist

A great service for finding the non-conformists

The "Shepherd" surname

Midland photographs

Researcher John Mellors

Onomastics - the Study of Proper Names - Richard Lander

Burials Calais Sud 1849 -1852 (continued) [List of dates and names]

Dear Ancestor (Author Unknown) - submitted by Lindsay Watts

Issue 80 (Vol. 21, Number 3), August 2003

Family Welcome Register - ASLC

Stop Press Nottingham - Barry Holland

Francis Archer 1782 -1869 - Bert Archer, 1980 & ASLC records

The Net that caught Nottingham - Pamela Sharpe, University of Bristol and Stanley Chapman, University of Nottingham

James Hutchinson, 1720 -1813 - Nottingham Review

William Dunk and Family - Harold Rowe

Caroline Longmire, Formerly Ward nee Bown - Laurel Ward

Daniel Smeaton, convict - Gillian Kelly

The Watchtower of Calais

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Bathurst Glimpses

Genealogist's Prayer (author unknown)

Obituary - Mrs E J Saywell

Mr William Cope - The Observer, Adelaide, 28 December 1918

How to Know when you are Growing Old - Peter Burke

Bill of all Christenings, Burials and Casualties from 15 Dec 1719 to 13 Dec 1720 - Lindy Newman

Issue 81 (Vol.21, Number 4), November 2003

James Shaw - Fay Duffield, Goondiwindi

Saywell Tales - June Howarth and Craig Williams

Bathing (Hall's Journal of Health, 22 December 1860)

Radio National Broadcast - Hindsight program by Gretchen Miller

South Australia in 1848 - Richard Lander

Stop Press Nottingham - Barry Holland in Nottingham [William Rogers]

1851 History NSW - some notes - Judy Gifford

The Nottingham Lace Trade in France in 1825 (Nottingham Review 18 October 1825)

For The Genealogist

Christmas Pudding Recipe from 1848

Issue 82 (Vol.22, Number 1), February 2004

Memories of an Agincourt Passenger - Maria Potter - Bathurst Times, 26 June 1924

Stop Press Nottingham [George Sumner letter and John Freestone's letters] - Barry Holland

Death of member Linda Lander 20 Oct 1911-21 Nov 2003

Death of member Judith Mossman of New Zealand (Lander Family)

Why Agincourt?

A Goldfinch Connection - Margo Wagner

Notes on James Masland - Framework Knitter

Who were the Lacemakers of Calais Really? - Gillian Kelly and Benoit Noel in France

Clement Robert Goldfinch (Cyclopædia of South Australia)

Private Life in the Fifteenth Century - The Paston Letters - Roger Vergoe

For The Genealogist

Burials in Calais Sud from PRO - Hummel

Issue 83 (Vol.22, Number 2), May 2004

And From the Editor – Details of Lacemaker names in the WW1 Roll of Honour

My Lot Never Would Conform! - © Mike Gould, Leicester

Man Made In 1848 - Richard Lander

...Also Man Made in 1848 - Lacemaker Family Births 1848 - Gillian Kelly

Cecil Alfred Hemsley (1893-1917)

Cape Otway Lighthouse - commissioned in 1848

Stop Press Nottingham - Barry Holland in Nottingham The Nottingham Lace Trade in France - Calais, Caen, Lille, Havre de Grace & Boulogne (Nottingham Review, 18 October 1825)

The Beginnings of Unionism in Nottingham (Nottingham Review, 6 July 1832)

Kingsley Ireland - a Member's Story – A survivor of diabetes for more than 50 years

The Insensitivity of the Press 1872 Style (Maitland Mercury, 30 May 1872)

Retford, Nottinghamshire In Harder Times - J S Percy, Retford

For The Genealogist

Burials at Calais, 1799 -1844 [Lacemaker names]

Crossing the Barriers [Crossing the Blue Mountains v Crossing the barriers of family History research]

Issue 84 (Vol.22, Number 3), August 2004

Hugh Lander (General Manager, James Craig) - May Guest Speaker's talk

Letter to the Editor from Kingsley Ireland

Stop Press Nottingham - Barry Holland in Nottingham [Nottingham Review, 10 Oct 1851 re George Knowles Huddleston, Nottingham Review, 11 July 1840 re cricket match between France & England]

A Sad Tale - a record of the deaths of 13 children to Benjamin & Lydia Russell

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Family Heirlooms - Kingsley Ireland's Cedar Sideboard - Richard Lander
A Gift of Gold - Oliver Lowe in Bathurst
Premier's Award to Judy Gifford - A Member's Story
The Great Mystery of the Family of John Wand - Gillian Kelly
Frances Nelson (nee Wand) - Bev Venn nee Nelson
So, What is in a Name? Complications caused by remarriage of lacemaker members.
Why South Australia? - The connection with George Louis Liptrott
Emigration of the Howitts
Saywell Tales Continued
For the Genealogist
 More Burials at Calais 1799-1844

Issue 85 (Vol.22, Number 4), November 2004

Secretary's Comment – Items required by Immigrants prior to Embarkation - Richard Lander
A Member's Story - Centenary Medal to Barbara Kendrick
The Oddfellows & The Lacemakers of Calais
The Parkes Family - Eric Sinfield
Death of member Jack Clifford 1919-2004
Laced with Intrigue - the Story of John & Eliza Wand & their children - Pam Harvey
The deaths of Naomi Croft & Thomas Caples - Bathurst Times, 1867
Bathurst Heritage Wall Plaques - families represented include William Brownlow, Charles Crofts, William Sargent
What a Great Way to Celery-Brate - Jeremy Lewis of the Saturday Evening Post, Nottingham
Wednesbury, Staffordshire
William Henry Sansom
Stop Press Nottingham - Barry Holland in Nottingham [A description of the uprising in Paris in 1830 from the Nottingham Review, 6 Aug 1830]
A diligence - a huge, horse-drawn carriage
For the Genealogist - the Atkin Family of Stapleford - Alan Atkin, Nottingham
 Deaths in Calais [Lacemaker names and details]
 Some Marriages from Calais [Lacemaker names and details]
 A Genealogist's Christmas Eve - Ron Hawthorn

Issue 86 (Vol.23, Number 1), February 2005

This is Your Tulle
Calais will have its Lace Museum - Anne Sophie Hache, Bruno Mallet & La Voix du Nord, Calais
Don't go to Australia, Ned
William & Elanor Gascoigne - An Adventure in Research - Gillian Kelly
Thomas Gascoigne of Braemar – Born Calais 1843-Died Bowral 1921 (The Southern Mail, 21 June 1921)
Steaming towards baths and picnics - Australia's first privately owned steam tram
A problem of a thousand years - house numbering in Calais
For the Genealogist
 Reading Old French
 Curious Fox – an interesting website
 Marriages in Calais [Lacemaker names and details]
Pronunciation of the English Language

Issue 87 (Vol.23, Number 2), May 2005

Secretary's Comment – Herbert Leslie Lander - Richard Lander
Well Suited to the Colony
My Grandmother's Shop - Les Riddell, Calais
Shipping Intelligence - article on the Harpley from the Plymouth Advertiser
A Peep at Nottingham - Richard Lander
Edward Lander, Police Constable - Richard Lander
Le p'tit quinquin - a lullaby from Lille
Garnet James Webster, OAM 2 July 1935-7 March 2005

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

The Lace of Calais

The Day the Earth Shook - the 1 Sept 1923 earthquake in Japan - Mrs. C Ewin

Calais - World War II

For the Genealogist

Genealogy & Computing - Richard Lander

1861 England Census - Gillian Kelly

The Power of the Census & BDMs - and the George Elliott Family

Issue 88 (Vol.23, Number 3), August 2005

From the Secretary - Richard Lander - a report on the address by Angela Phippen at our May Meeting titled "Memorials and Honour Boards - A Broad Outline"

A Winter's Tale - a snippet from Creswell's Nottingham & Newark Journal, 1772

Of Ships and Sails and Sealing Wax - Almost - Claire Loneragan

The Odd Idle Thought

The Lacemakers and the Jones Girls - Val Rudkin & Gillian Kelly

The People's Museum at Calais - Frédérique Haffaf

The Bathurst Advocate, 12 Feb 1848 - article on treatment of people being taken to the watch-house by the local police

Who was Zadock Bamford? - Gillian Kelly with assistance from Chris Smalley, a descendant of Zadock Bamford & Ann Rogers

Creswell's Nottingham & Newark Journal, 1772 - John Mellors

Genealogy & Computing (cont.) - Richard Lander

Websites worth a peep

Using the LDS Films - Judy Gifford

Deaths in Calais [Lacemaker names and information]

Issue 89 (Vol.23, Number 4), November 2005

From the Editor - Gillian Kelly - DNA and the Lacemakers

A Truly Diverse Family - that of John Bunny - Beth Williams

Cock Fighting as a Sport

Draughtsmen - A Dying Race - Gillian Kelly and others

The Necropolis of Sydney - address by Robyn Hawes, President of 'Friends of Rookwood'

The Nottingham Workhouse - James Orange, Nottingham, 1840

Books Available: Litchfields in South East Australia by Terry Litchfield, Litchfields of

Derbyshire/Nottinghamshire by Janet Dickinson

Genealogy & Computing (cont.) - Richard Lander

For the Genealogist

Extension of NSW BDM Records

Some really useful web sources

Deaths in Calais (cont.) [Lacemaker names and details]

The Curious Occupations of James Smith - lacemaker to dentist

Sacred to the Memory - Ian Longmire

Issue 90 (Vol.24, Number 1), February 2006

The Mather Family - Rosie Wileman, Coalville, Leicestershire

It's the Law

Tender Love - Horatio Nelson to Emma Hamilton

The Harrisons - Nottingham, Calais and Ballarat - Bev Mahoney, Vermont, Vic.

The Plight of the Framework Knitters, 1842 - David E Millott, Devon, England

Nottingham Lace in Australia - Battle of Britain Lace Panel at the Australian War Memorial

The Lace Place - Wave Rock, Hyden, Western Australia

George Fauquet of Calais - Gillian Kelly

That Which Goes Around Comes Around - Lindsay Watts

William Wood's Diary by Peter Pennington - a Book Review by Rosie Wileman

Genealogy & Computers (cont.) - Richard Lander

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Some Nottingham Convicts [transcription of records at the Nottingham Burrough Quarter Sessions Records, Transportations 1723-1858] - Betty Guise Forrest (Lamb Family)

Issue 91 (Vol.24, Number 2), May 2006

Address by Mrs Jo Harris (Vice President, Ku-Ring-Gai Historical Society Inc.)

The Shore Family - Barbara Manchester

A Day's Tour [of Calais in 1880s] - Percy Fitzgerald

Sport, Games and Leisure in the 1840s - Richard Lander

The Lace Machines and the Holden Automobile - Graham Journey

Computing & Genealogy (cont.) - Richard Lander

For the Genealogist

Some Marriages at Calais from the Registers at Calais 1793-1839

For those of the Harpley - <http://www.onlinenames.net.au/> - Gillian Kelly

A Family Historian's Lament

Issue 92 (Vol.24, Number 3), August 2006

Congratulations to member Mrs. June Howarth for her Order of Australia award

Vale - Enid Florence Bastick 1918-2005 (Lander Family)

More Congratulations - 60th Wedding Anniversary for member Lindsay Watts and her husband

Potter & Jacklin of Calais and the Agincourt - Gayle Richardes Potter

A Nuisance in Back Lane - 1 August 1813 [Records of the Borough of Nottingham]

Alberton Cemetery, South Australia - Source Unknown, copy forwarded by Jean Dixon

Coin of the Realm - a one penny coin from 1848 with the head of the then young Queen Victoria

The Shore Family (cont.) - Selina Shore and the Watts Family - Barbara Manchester

Sport, Games & Leisure in the 1840s -cont. - Richard Lander

Shortweight [Records of the Borough of Nottingham]

Nottingham Review Extract - 13 August 1852

Genealogy & Computers - cont. - Richard Lander [Bromhead family data]

The Early Arrivals - the English Laceworkers who were in Calais before 1831

Issue 93 (Vol.24, Number 4), November 2006

The Secrets of 38 Leicester Rd, Loughborough - Heathcoat's House - Anthony Jarram, Matt Jarram & the Loughborough Echo.

For Sale: A Tiny Piece of a Legend [Ned Kelly's Revolver] - from an article written by Steve Meachim, Newcastle Herald, 5 Oct 2006

Vale Mr. Lindsay Watts, husband of member Mrs. Lindsay Watts

Sport, Games & Leisure in the 1840s cont. - Richard Lander

Lest We Forget - Private Claud Bingley (a descendant of Fanny Stubbs of the Fairlie) - Judith Griffiths

Calais Museum of Fashion & Lace - La Voix du Nord, 4 July 2006

William Abednego Thompson of Sneiton - bare-knuckle fighter from Nottingham

Bendigo's Sermon - Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Genealogy & Computers - Keyboard Shortcuts - Richard Lander

The Early Arrivals (cont.) - the English Laceworkers who were in Calais before 1831

Issue 94 (Vol.25, Number 1), February 2007

Eliza Robinson nee Houghton

Floods: Serious Loss of Life - Margaret Hunt [The 1857 Floods in Maitland]

Visit to Calais - Robert J Lakin, Lancefield, Vic

George Wilkins, DD

William Birks - Champion Pedestrian of France

Vale - Nick Vine Hall - G Jaunay

Sport, Games & Leisure in the 1840s (cont.) - Children's Activities - Richard Lander

In Retrospect - The Departure of the Lacemakers from Calais (from Tulle, March 1983)

Petit à Petit, L'Usine Boulart Devient La Cité de la Dentelle! [Calais Lace Museum under construction]

The Bunny Family in Nottingham - Beth Williams

For the Genealogist

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

William Felkin's Australian Link - Gillian Kelly
The Early Arrivals (cont.)

Issue 95 (Vol.25, Number 2), May 2007

The Life of Henry & Sarah Lee - Judith Power
Well Suited to the Colony - Do You Have Your Copy?
Saywell's Hotel History Served Up on eBay - Lead from Kate Foy
The Lacemakers' Story: Loughborough, Luddites & Long Journeys - Gillian Kelly
The Micron Theatre Company's production of 'The Lacemakers'
Bromheads on the Hunter River - Lucy Bates
The Flying Lacemakers - John Stringfellow & William Henson - Richard Lander
From Nottingham to the Cape of Good Hope 1819
The Early Arrivals at Calais - the completed lists
Strangers in the Box [a poem]

Issue 96 (Vol.25, Number 3), August 2007

Invitation to Linen & Lace, Singleton
Life & Medicine in the 1800s - address by Dr. John Fluit at our May 2007 meeting
The Beginning of the End - 1846 - London Times, 27 June 1846
The Extreme Clipper Ship - Red Jacket & Thomas & Louise Selby
A Curious Circumstance, Dover 29 June 1835 [A lace smuggler]
The Children of John & Adelaide Shore (Adelaide Australia Shore, 1851-1919) - Narelle Richardson
The French Legion of Honour - Richard Lander
Another Branch to the Donisthorpe Tree - John Robert Portwine -J.M. Trethewey
The Plight of the Framework Knitters - 1812
For the Genealogist
Joseph Davis and his children
Albert Soar - son of Henry Soar & Emma Sophie Saywell
George Stubbs, William Stubbs & Mary Green - a circumstantial story
Deaths in Calais [Lacemaker names, dates and notes]

Issue 97 (Vol.25, Number 4), November 2007

25 Years - A Celebration
Annals and Legends of Calais - The Basseville - Robert Bell Calton, 1852
The Barnetts of Sneinton - Graham Barnett, Nottingham and ASLC
The Thomas Harrison, Extracts from her log - National Archives, Wellington, NZ 21 Set 1976 - converted to electronic form by Jim Stevens
Lest We Forget 11 November - war photos from Calais, Nottingham & Leicester
The Parramatta River & Its Vicinity 1848-1861 - D W Campbell, 1919
For the Genealogist
Prerogative & Exchequer Courts of York Probate Index on British Origins

Issue 98 (Vol.26, Number 1), February 2008 - Gillian Kelly's final edition

The Brownlows of Briar Park - Glenda Gault
The Children of Mary Anne Worthington - Gillian Kelly & Alex Crane Stafford
From Consul Bonham to Breaker Morant
Taking the Packet to Calais
The Production Line of a Lace Factory
Poaching in the Lace Trade
1943 Guide to Hiring Women
William Biddulph - Finding a Name (from the notes of the Berrima & District Historical Society
The Leavers Lace Industry in the United States - A Familiar Story [The American Lace Manufacturers Association, Inc. 1949]
Samuel Stevens & John Bromhead - Robin Gordon
For the Genealogist
Be Warned - Gillian Kelly

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

The Bosses of the Lace Trade in Calais 1845-1848
The Spelling of the Day

Issue 99 (Vol.26, Number 2), May 2008 - Richard Lander's first edition

ASLC Office Holders - The First 25 Years

Arrival of the Agincourt

Articles from the "Maitland Mercury", October 1848 on the Agincourt

Did You Know? The Arnott Family in Morpeth

Fashions for June 1848

Port Adelaide Report by Mrs Chris Sutton 1985 - reprint from Tulle Issue 9

Quotations from people who were born or died in 1848

Theakers Yard - research by Mrs Lindsay Watts

Book Review: The Diary of a Farmer's Wife 1796-1797 - Claire Loneragan

Baggy Green #399 & the link with the Lacemakers - Judy Gifford

The Friends of Charnwood Exhibition - Tony Jarram

For the Genealogist

Comment on BMD records in England - R Neep

Issue 100 (Vol.26, Number 3), August 2008

Maria Maher - An Irish Orphan [address by Robin Wines] - Summary by Gillian Kelly

Probate Records in Nottingham

SMH Shipping News 8 August 1848 - arrival of the Fairlie

SMH Shipping News 8 August 1848 - Immigrants per the Fairlie

SMH 8 August 1848 - the English Workman in Calais

Emigrants on their way to the point of embarkation 21 December 1844

Book Review - "Man is Never Free" - Claire Loneragan

The Gentleman's Magazine 1862 - Obituaries

From a Famine Journal - Tony Curtis

The English Guild Calais, Ardres Ascension Day - Peter Barsby

Credit Selection of Land in South Australia - Maureen M Leadbeater

The Nottingham Lace Trade in Calais - Help Needed - Nan Keightley

Map of Europe 1848

The Calais Lace Project - an article contributed by Anne Fewkes

Invented in 1848 - Richard Lander

Issue 101 (Vol.26, Number 4), November 2008

Isabella Bridget Shore - Narelle Richardson

Machine Lace - 1857 Encyclopaedia Britannica entry

Nottingham Trades in 1848

For the Genealogist

1848 Professions of Nottingham People with surnames corresponding to those aboard the Agincourt

Nottingham newspaper cuttings from 1842 and 1844

Digging into your family history - mining and lacemakers

Family Historian's Lament

Old Remedies – Home remedies best left alone

St Mary's Church, Nottingham – Comments and data about the church

Issue 102 (Vol. 27, Number 1), February 2009

Narrow Marsh – Book Review – Richard Lander

The Emigrant's Friend or Authentic Guide to South Australia, 1848

Births to Harpley Passengers after arriving in South Australia

Vale - Ian Longmire

Post Script William Biddulph - Gillian Kelly

Homan Family Update - Beth Williams

Early Calais - Kingsley Ireland

Resignation of Long -Standing Members - Mignon & Trevor Preston

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Gillian Kelly's Presentation at November Meeting
Wand Family Members Seek Gold - Pam Harvey
Berthe Wacogne - A Saywell whose family stayed in Calais - Eve Cantin

Issue 103 (Vol. 27, Number 2), May 2009

The Last Sunday in England
ASLC Income and Expenditure 1 Jan 2008 to 31 Dec 2008
Aborigines in Nottingham in 1868 - Anne Fewkes
Victorian Funerals and Mourning
John Stuart Mill
Sir Charles Augustus FitzRoy
Sir John Bayley Darvall
South Australia As It Is Brown or Barry? - Gillian Kelly
The Burghers of Calais
A Tribute to Elizabeth Simpson, F.S.G.
Terrorism Claims Another Victim - The Lace Centre in Nottingham
Duck - Jones Reunion

Issue 104 (Vol. 27, Number 3), August 2009

South Australia As It Is (continued from Tulle, May)
A Window on the Dormer Family
The Essential Handbook of Victorian Etiquette
Vale - Laurie Howarth, O.A.M.
Maitland and Morpeth in 1848
Charlotte Parsons, Harpley
Ship Types and Descriptions
Ship Rigging
George Foster & Sons - Beth Williams
The Late Harry Boyle - Lindsay Watts
Lost by E. Homan - Beth Williams
History of H.P. Sauce - Judy Gifford
From Sugar to Lace - Caroline Luard of the Harpley - Gillian Kelly

Issue 105 (Vol. 27, Number 4), November 2009

With Rigour and Persistence - The Jarry-Gray Volume [Report on address by Emeritus Professor Ken Dutton]
Using the Pas de Calais Archives On Line - Gillian Kelly
The Bromhead Story - "Laced Together" - Lindsay Watts
What's this name Burleigh all about? - Bob Wilson
French Kiss for Lost Nottingham Industrial Era - David Lowe from the "Evening Post"
Fourth Estate - Nottingham newspapers and journals in the time of our ancestors

Issue 106 (Vol. 28, Number 1), February 2010

To join those as poor as a "stockinger" - no choice at all! - Stephen Black
Birth, Marriage & Death Registers in the UK - Ian Bracher
Arrival of the Fairlie
Snapshot of London in 1848
English Poor Laws and the Workhouses
La Cité Internationale de la Dentelle et de la Mode de Calais is open! – Gillian Kelly
Quiz on the first 20 issues of Tulle
The 1841 British Census - Richard Lander [A comprehensive review]
Harpley single people and their known Australian marriages
Transportation of convicts from Nottingham to Australia
William Bear - Fairlie passenger
Answers to the Quiz

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 107 (Vol. 28, Number2), May 2010

Nottingham Eccentrics

The Last Australian Killed in Europe in the Second World War - Bob Wilson

The Dixon Family - Harpley passengers - Jean Dixon

The Tale of a Wedding Gown - Gillian Kelly

Putting Together Your Family History

Immigration - from The Atlas, 19 August 1848

John Blackner

Did You Know?

Grandma Climbed the Family Tree

Nottingham Parishes

The Birkin Family of Nottingham

Tracing Your Family History - Richard Lander

Shakespearean & Biblical References to Our Various Interests - Richard Lander

The Rainbird Murders [South Australia]

The Clock of Life

Issue 108 (Vol. 28, Number3), August 2010

A One Time Convict & Sometime Gentleman - the Rises & Falls of William Talbot Suttor - Robert French

Greville's Post Office Directory 1872 - possible Agincourt passenger details

Competence in a Colony - Colonization & Emigration [A Memorial addressed to the Lord John Russell]

Nottinghamshire Record Agents - Richard Lander

St Pierre-les-Calais as the Lacemakers knew it - Gillian Kelly

Getting Started - Some Useful Genealogical Sites

Lost Nottingham Crafts - Richard Lander

From Calais to Hobart via the Old Bailey - Barry Holland in Nottingham

Issue 109 (Vol. 28, Number4), November 2010

Mary MacKillop - Address by Claire Loneragan

From Nottingham to Calais - Gillian Kelly

Register Personal Notices - Richard Lander [Very useful books for SA family research]

Calais fights to prevent lace factory moving to America in 1909

Pedestrianism

The Origins of Calais Lace - Richard Lander

Salmagundi - Longmire Family

Google Books

Getting Started - Some More Useful Genealogical Sites

List of Ship's Officers & Others recommended for services performed on board Harpley

"Lascelles and Hagar's Commercial Directory - 1848

Something Old...The House of Commons, 7 April 1848

Latin Relations!

The derivation of placenames associated with the lacemakers

William Browne - Agincourt

Causes of Death & Illnesses [Often found on death certificates of the past]

Issue 110 (Vol. 29, Number1), February 2011

Brownlow Family - ex-Mayor of Nottingham

Those Other Ships

The Diary of Joseph Tivey - Bermondsey

The Harpley Timbers

Papers Relative to Emigration

Harry Boyle

A Remarkable Coincidence - Ray Kent

Sea Chanties

Tulle Questionnaire - Issues 21 to 40

The End of Transportation to New South Wales

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Nottinghamshire Historical Directories

The Brownlow Family - Bev Mahoney & Glenda Bone-Gault

Salmagundi - Sir James H B Carr - Gillian Kelly

The Frances Family of Nottingham - Tony Armitage

Book Review - "Fisticuffs, Diamonds and Lace" by Ann Rayner

Mud map of Calais, Section G in 1830

Answers to the Quiz

Issue 111 (Vol. 29, Number 2), May 2011

Letter to the Editor - Margo Wagner

Calais Descendants Meet (John Morley of Dublin) - Judy Gifford

The Military Career of George Burley - Bob Wilson

Summer of the Cousins (Mather Family) - Rosie Wileman

A Fairlie-Bermondsey Connection (The Wilcockson/Lovett Families) - Judith Griffiths

ASLC Financial Reports for 2010

Harpley Newspaper Cuttings

Newspaper Cuttings relating to the Agincourt and Walmer Castle

The 1846 Calais Census - Using the Resources of les Archives du Pas-de-Calais - Richard Lander
Genealogical Terms

Issue 112 (Vol. 29, Number 3), August 2011

Those other ships

Agincourt Newspaper Clippings from 1848

Emigration Papers - Surgeons Superintendent

A serious falling out amongst friends? (William Ward v Richard Husband)

Walmer Castle - Press Clippings

Congratulations to Judy Gifford, OAM

Select Committee Inquiry into Artisans & Machinery, 1824

The Suttor Family of Bathurst

Bathurst & Kelso Cemetery Transcriptions (Cornelius Johnson & Frances Crofts)

O'Connell Plains and Bathurst

The Arrival of the Agincourt Emigrants

The First New South Wales Election

Issue 113 (Vol. 29, Number 4), November 2011

Plans for Thirtieth Anniversary Celebrations

Letter to the Editor (re the Andromache) - Gillian Kelly

That Dress (Princess Catherine's wedding gown & its inclusion of Cluny Lace) - Gillian Kelly

What was happening in 1685? - Richard Lander

Harpley Families - Richard Lander

Constable Lander arrests a drunken woman

Nottingham Lace 1760s - 1950s - review of Sheila Mason's book

The Alexander Henderson Award & other Family History Awards

The Agincourt - Stephen Black [Story of launch, 1848 voyage and route map]

"Stepper Bill" - an update - Bob Wilson

"Make Lace - Not War" - review of an international exhibition at the Powerhouse Museum, Sydney

Issue 114 (Vol. 30, Number 1), February 2012

William Brownlow - Agincourt Passenger

Stragglers, Strays, Absentees and Deserters

The Hosiery and Lace Trades

Mather Family - Baboo Passengers - Rosie Wileman

Saywell's Eagle Tobacco Factory

Book Review - "Narrow Marsh" - Rosie Wileman

Lace Fencing

Sydney Herbert's Female Emigration Scheme - Judy Gifford

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Sydney in 1848

"Emigration to Australia" from the Ballina Chronicle, 5 December 1849

Richard Silink and the Work of the Historic Houses Trust of NSW

Issue 115 (Vol. 30, Number 2), May 2012

Anne-Claire Laronde's appointment as the new Curator of the Calais Lace Museum

The weather and the lacemakers - Stephen Black

Miscellaneous paper clippings (Part 1)

The Emperor and Walmer Castle paper clippings

Our ships as convict transporters

Sabina Barnett of the Harpley

Book Reviews - Stephen Black - No Simple Passage by Jenny Robin Jones, Private Journal of a Voyage to Australia 1838-1839 by James Bell (Richard Walsh, Editor)

More interesting and free websites

Marriage licences, banns and certificates

Did you know?

Huguenot ancestry

Livrets

Issue 116 (Vol. 30, Number 3), August 2012 - Bumper 30th Anniversary Edition

The first page of the first issue of Tulle, October 1982

Sydney in 1848 - Claire Loneragan

The Harpley - Enid Bastick

Fairlie Gossip

As poor as a Stockinger

The first meeting of ASLC at Don Bank

Nottingham and the Non-Conformists

The Burgess Family - one of six non-lacemaker families aboard the Harpley

No work, no hope, no bread

Nottingham Machine Lacemakers - Elizabeth Simpson

Translating French death certificates - Lyndall Lander

Translating French birth certificates - Lyndall Lander

Map of Nottinghamshire

St Pierre les Calais as the lacemakers knew it - Gillian Kelly

South Australian pay rates in 1849

How ASLC celebrated its tenth and twentieth birthdays

Life in the lace factories - Gillian Kelly

The Lace Factory

Those two Maitlands - Lindsay Watts

And finally the (former) Editor – Gillian Kelly

Bobbins and carriages - Gillian Kelly

Letters from Adelaide - John Freestone

Issue 117 (Vol. 30, Number 4), November 2012

Trade unionism in lace making - Part 1 - Richard Lander

Sharpen your Google search skills

The Ancient Order of Druids – South Australian Register, 5 March 1851

Death of James Hemsley - Harpley passenger

John Heathcoat

General Ludd's Triumph

Thames tugs operating in the 1840s

Five generations later: the Saywells and the Deweys unite - Bob Wilson

Bob Wilson's appointment to the Chair of the new Rookwood General Cemeteries Reserve Trust

The Gold Fever, Bathurst

Issue 118 (Vol. 31, Number 1), February 2013

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Leavers lace videos on the internet
Meeting places of the Society over the past 30 years
The top ten mistakes made in genealogical research
Notice of 31st AGM
Trade unionism in lace making - Part 2 - Richard Lander
Mrs Saywell socks it to Busteed
Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 December 2012
Searching for a French Connection - Barbara Manchester
Origins of Lacemaker Surnames - Saywell, Gascoigne, Duck and Nutt
Miscellaneous paper clippings
Nottingham Trent University Lace Collection
Bromhead Family
Foundation Members of the Society [A list of names]

Issue 119 (Vol. 31, Number 2), May 2013

Calais BDM Registers now available online
Feedback on Tulle, February 2013 - Bob Wilson
Mrs Robin Gordon, OAM
The machine-made lace industry in Calais, 1904
William Cope
Neither Elysium nor Pandemonium
The Zion Lace Factory, Illinois
Smuggling [lace] as a fine art
Death Notice: Thomas Dunk, Harpley passenger
Was there scurvy aboard the Harpley?
Some significant Nottingham dates
Highway robbery in Adelaide - Thomas Mountenay the victim
Nottingham surnames research list
Vale - Mlle. Eliane Legrand, c1922-5 February 2013
Guest Speakers over the first thirty years

Issue 120 (Vol. 31, Number 3), August 2013

Trove - an Australian Treasure
Hand-made or Machine-made lace?
St Leodegarius Church, Basford - Narelle Richardson
The Bells of St Leonards, Naremburn by John Taylor & Co, Loughborough
Men of Nottingham and Nottinghamshire
1848 -1788=60; 60+1848=1908
Mail deliveries prior to the 1850s - John S Saywell
The world in 1848
Making Sense of Census
William White's Gazetteer and Directory of Nottinghamshire & Nottingham, 1832
More lace videos online
For knitters
Connections between lacemaker families: Goodliffe/Cooper/Brownlow/Gascoigne, Duck/Litchfield
Mr Kingsley Ireland - ASLC Foundation Member
Nottingham Parish Records for Marriages at St Mary's, 1566 to 1763
An Ancient Air - Book Review
Rt. Hon. Margaret Bondfield PC
Who was that old man who died aboard the Harpley?

Issue 121 (Vol. 31, Number 4), November 2013

Margo Wagner, OAM
200 Years Ago - What was happening in 1813?
The Sydney Morning Herald, 11 October 1848
Welcome to New Member, David Groves

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Origins of the Saywells - Bob Wilson
ASLC Friendships - Judy Gifford
J.B. Walker - Lace Curtain Factory, Sandiacre - Jane Bealby
Lacemaker Cake or Cattern Cake
Henry James Mather
For the Genealogist
 Mr Calais Brownlow
 Burst reservoir wall at Calais, 1882
Nottingham - Some Facts
New South Wales State Records
Report on the Nottingham Machine -Lace Trade
Shipping List for Baboo

Issue 122 (Vol. 32, Number 1), February 2014

Editor's Comment - Richard Lander (Annual Report)
The Lacemakers - the movie
Notice of 32nd AGM
Financial Reports for the Society for Year ending 31 December 2013
Lord Byron's Maiden Speech
Hiram Longmire Family Reunion at Lochiel, SA, October 2013 - Jim Longmire
Kerr's Hundredweight - a famous gold discovery
Chris Rogers - Australian Ashes Cricketer and descendant of William Rogers (Walmer Castle)
Welcome to eleven new members
Donisthorpe and Mountney Families - Mrs Chris Watson
Society of Australian Genealogists Resources
200 Years Ago. What was happening in 1814?
Travelling to Nottingham?
The Condition of the Working Class in England - Friedrich Engels
Alcock Brothers Limited
Book Review: Don't be late on Monday - Life and Work in a Nottingham Lace Factory
Ragged Schools
Death of the Rev. A. Stubbs - a well-known Methodist Minister.

Issue 123 (Vol. 32, Number 2), May 2014

Welcome to New Members
Comment on Tulle, February 2014 – Bob Wilson
Life aboard an Emigrant Ship – Richard & Lyndall Lander
A Thought for Today – time to start writing your family history
Lacemakers aboard the General Hewett
The Thomas Arbuthnot & the Brown Family
Another Traditional East Midlands Recipe - Nottingham Pudding
Letter from Adelaide – John Freestone of the Harpley
Henry Longmire – Harpley passenger
The Homan Family – an Epic Search by Beth Williams
The Williams Family of Nottingham and New Zealand
Old Nottingham Maps
Edward Gibbon Wakefield
Vale - Kenneth Frederick Hawkins, Madeline Forgie JP, John Stephen Saywell OAM, Delcie Irene Homan and Una May Homan
Lewis Heymann
Framework Knitters (FWK)
Was your ancestor a FWK?
Lacy objects

Issue 124 (Vol. 32, Number 3), August 2014

St Paul's Church, Hyson Green, Nottingham

Return to Top of Directory

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

James and Mary Foster - Megan Lucas
Some forms of machine-made lace
Finding Dashing Willie - Bob Wilson
Imitation lace and embroidered nets
Heathcoat's factory at Tiverton - the original workforce
A break from lace...almost
Nottinghamshire colonists to South Africa - Rod Neep
Another traditional East Midlands recipe - Leicestershire Pudding or Hunting Pudding
Harpley Happenings
Obituary - Mrs T. J. Hannam, Navarino
The problems did not end in 1848!
Lochiel Hotel in the news 1860s to early 1880s - Kingsley Ireland
Mr Harry Boyle's paper - The Lacemakers
Did our ancestor's know them: Tom Souville and Beau Brummell
Ned Kelly's Lacemaker connections - Megan Lucas
Ned Kelly and the Foster Family - a postscript

Issue 125 (Vol. 32, Number 4), November 2014

The Royal South Australian Almanac and General Directory for 1848
Salmagundi - NSW BDM in old form, Honour to ASLC Member, Kingsley Ireland, Lochiel Hotel, SA, destroyed by fire, Can't find an expected death in the Ryerson Index?
Homan Family News
Lace – from the South Australian Register, 6 December 1886
Nottinghamshire Colonists to South Africa (Rod Neep) – Part 2
Relief by Colonization – a Nottingham Immigration to South Africa - Gillian Kelly
Bathurst Bicentenary
Vale – Members Eric Sinfield and Dalmas Brown
The French Economic Situation 1847-1852
La Bûche de Noël – Traditional French Christmas Log Cake

Issue 126 (Vol. 33, Number 1), February 2015

Editor's Report for 2014 - Richard Lander
Notice of the 33rd AGM of ASLC
Free Nottingham Online Cemetery Search Sites
ASLC Financial Reports for 2014
Lacemaker Descendants who died in the Great War
War Service of three Shore Great Grandsons - Barbara Manchester
Foster Grandsons Who Survived the War - Megan Fox
Nottingham Lace Making – Lewiston Daily, Sunday 9 December 1907
A Trade Puzzle - The Mail and Empire, 13 April 1899, Toronto
Jeremiah Brandeth
Also Happening in 1848
The South Australian Census 1861
The Vernacular of the Lace Industry
Henry James Mather – Gawler Veteran
What was happening in 1815? – 200 years ago!
Joseph Clarke of the Harpley
That Political Pandemonium: Nottingham - Bob Wilson
Did You Know? Charles Sturt and “Sting”
Cholera in Calais and St Pierre 1832
Vale – Death of Anne Fewkes, ASLC Life Member
Anne Valerie Fewkes – Memories
The first Australian casualties of World War I

Issue 127 (Vol. 33, Number 2), May 2015

Lace Panels in Australia commemorating the Battle of Britain of 1940 – Sheila Mason

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

William Brown(e), Agincourt Passenger – Amanda Churchill
More Handy Links - Kingsley Ireland
Thomas Cook
More Handy Links - Judy Gifford
Huntley, Tinson and Clark(e) - revisited
John Heathcoat 1783-1861
John Heathcoat's Patent for Bobbin Lace
Population of Nottingham and its Suburbs
Nottingham observations in 1868
Luddism – Richard Lander
An Ode to the Framers of the Frame Bill
Letter from Thomas Latham at Nottingham to the Mayor of Tewkesbury
Henry Stuart of the 'Bermondsey'
Vale - Lionel Thomas William Goldfinch
Welcome to new members
Award to member, June Howarth
Lionel Thomas William Goldfinch – Eulogy
Emperor
Office Bearers of ASLC from 1982-2016

Issue 128 (Vol. 33, Number 3), August 2015

Those who reigned over our lacemakers
The Expense of Revolutions
Old Nottingham expressions and customs
John Blackner
The Nottingham Riots of 1794
Nottingham lacemakers in USA
Hayes Frederick Ingham
Affiliated associations – update
Welcome to new members: Kerrie Lucas, Marion Moran, Marilyn Stewart, Cheryl Williss
Henri Hénon 1816-1817
Deptford
The Poor Laws
Salmagundi
 Lace at Pymble Antiques
 Fraternization aboard Fairlie
 Dissolving silk -thread
 Occupations listed in the British Census of 1871
 Death of Mary Anne Huntley - Harpley
 Lace industry cottages at Stapleford
English Wills and Probate, 1507-1858
Bathurst remembers 200 years of history
British Army Officers in the Peninsular War 1808-1814 [Lacemaker Family names]
The Sawyer Funeral and Mourning Coaches at Bathurst
Queen Anne's lace
Gypsies in Nottingham
Perforated postage stamps
Sixty years later - six persons drown at Calais
Origin of French surnames - Lyndall Lander

Issue 129 (Vol. 33, Number 4), November 2015

The History of the Hand-Knitted Stocking
Henri Hénon continued (to 1823)
Nottingham lace trade c1900
Christmas in Nottingham - Judy Gifford
The French Republican Calendar

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

The development of machine lace
Clarifications regarding Richard Goldfinch and Richard Dixon
The Kings and Queens of England

Issue 130 (Vol. 34, Number 1), February 2016

Notice of the 34th AGM
Vale: Sheila Mary Tess Rogers (Roe Family)
Financial Statements for the Society as at 31 December 2015
Henri Hénon translation by Lyndall Lander (continued)
Vale: Elaine Callaway (Archer Family)
Harpley Connections - the Goldfinch and Crowder Families - Cheryl Willis
What was happening in 1816 - 200 years ago?
Major Innovations - then and now
The churches of Nottingham
To reign or to govern? That is the question - Bob Wilson
Nottingham's weird and wonderful street names
The changing face of East Midlands lace manufacturing
The Rogers, Castle and Groves Connection - Rev. David Groves
Welcome to New Members: Colin Routley (Crowder Family, Harpley) Maxine Menyweather (Saywell Family, Agincourt)
Lace, Ancient and Modern
Weft and Warp
French Monarchs, Emperors, Presidents and Heads of State

Issue 131 (Vol. 34, Number 2), May 2016

Sunday School Picnics - Lindsay Watts
Lacemaker characters who came aboard Harpley in 1848 (Part A) - Gillian Kelly
Four Hundred Years Ago - Death of The Bard
Two Hundred Years Ago - Lace in Elizabethan Fashion
Welcome to new member - Wendy Varidel (Duck Family, Agincourt)
My dear Great Grandmother's Gift - June Howarth, OAM
Photographs: William Bromhead, Arthur Bromhead, Charles and Lucy Foster, Chris 'Buck' Rogers
Who's Who in our Lacemaker Family
Coming Events, National Family History Month, Annual Conference of NSW/ACT Association of Family History Societies, Annual Conference of Royal Australian Historical Society (RAHS)
An exodus of laceworkers in 1816 - Tony Jarram
The year without Summer - 1816
When the Quiet Comes - Megan Fox
The fate of our lacemaker ships - Jim Longmire
Affiliate membership of the Royal Australian Historical Society (RAHS)
Thanks to Richard Lander - recently retired Editor of Tulle - Jim Longmire

Issue 132 (Vol. 34, Number 3), August 2016

The Cow and the Plough - Cheryl Willis
Lacemaker characters who came aboard Harpley in 1848 (Part B) - Gillian Kelly
The Origins of Tulle
Welcome to New Members: Lisa Armstrong-Cook (West family, Agincourt), Barbara Medlin (Longmire family, Harpley)
Centrefold Photographs: Don Bank Cottage, Elizabeth Bolton (100 years of women in NSW policing), Megan Fox (the lacemaker tea towel)
An expression of sympathy to our friends in France
One hundred years of women policing in New South Wales - Elizabeth Bolton
One hundred years ago
Piracy of the lacemaker ship Nelson on Hobson's Bay
The commercial career of the lacemaker barque Baboo - Jim Longmire
Our Lacemaker Society tea towel

<https://www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au/>

Return to Top of Directory

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 133 (Vol. 34, Number 4), November 2016

Christmas in Calais

My early days of family history -Kingsley Ireland – Longmire Family

Lucy Bates (ASLC member) awarded “Senior Volunteer 2016” – Bromhead Family

Bell Ringing in Nottinghamshire

Paul Wand (ASLC member) accepts award to digitise Tulle

Calais in the news – the refugee camp called “The Jungle”

Retirement of Chris Rogers from First Class cricket – Rogers Family

Employment and Dispersal Lists – Assisted Passengers arriving 1848-1854 - Aileen Trinder

Tough times for Lace Factories in Calais 2016 - Michael Rose

The Nottingham Reel & Fishing Tackle Manufacturers - Brian Binns

Uses and Customs of Church Bells in England

Will the wreck of the Lacemaker Ship Baboo ever be found? - Jim Longmire

Issue 134 (Vol. 35, Number 1), November 2016

Horse drawn coach’s link to the Lacemakers - Gillian Kelly

The Rogers Family – White Horse Inns of Newtown & Moore College - David Groves

Fostering interest in family history amongst our children - Megan Fox

Welcome to New Members: Sue Mirow (Foster family, Agincourt), David and Angela Saywell (Saywell family),

Jean Campbell (Woodforth family, Agincourt)

View of Calais at the time of Henry VIII

On the Lace Trail – Lisa Armstrong-Cook (West family, Agincourt)

Website Launch – www.lacemakersofcalais.com.au - Sally and Dean Farrow

Reflections on Family History - Kingsley Ireland

Church of the High Seas – Births, Baptisms and Marriages at Sea - Marilyn Brown

David, Angela, and Alan Saywell at Bournemouth

Emma and Lucy Longmire – horse trainers

Society Accounts for Year Ending 31 December 2016

Issue 135 (Vol. 35, Number 2), May 2017

A modern use for Calais Lace. Regenerating breast tissue – Megan Fox

Meet a Member – Stephen and Jenny Black (Bromhead family)

A Trip to Calais in 1802 by William Wordsworth - Jim Longmire

Returning Belmont Baths – Robin Gordon

A Trip Over the Mountains in 1841 (Part A) – Gillian Kelly

Our Printer – Fine Impressions – Jim Longmire

Using the Pas-de-Calais Archives Online – Gillian Kelly

An Index of Surnames of Lacemakers of Calais in the 1846 Census – Jim Longmire

Book review – The Iron Castle – a novel of Robin Hood by Angus Donald – Jim Longmire

Accessing the Royal Australian Historical Society’s eNewsletter Online – Carolyn Broadhead

Coming Events -2017

Issue 136 (Vol. 35, Number 3), August 2017

Trusted friends of descendants of Lacemakers – June Howarth

Gold, honey and horses: recurring themes of the Foster family in Australia – Megan Fox

Vale – Alice May Goldfinch

Judy Gifford and Lindsay Watts make presentations to their local FHS

Excerpts from The Last Parade by A. B. (Banjo) Paterson

National Family History Month 2017

Feedback on the Index of Surnames of the Lacemakers of Calais

Farming with Clydesdale Horses at Kybunga, South Australia

Nick Vine Hall Award 2017

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais

Issue 137 (Vol. 35, Number 4), November 2017

Revision of the Constitution for ASLC
Reaching Out to Lacemakers around the World – Facebook
The Revamped ASLC Website
The Great Lace Factory – Christian Borde
The Saint-Omer Canal and the First Steam Factories
The Tanner’s Cycle and the Margetson Case (1809-1861)
Margetson Pollution Control
Vale: Marilyn (Helen Marilyn) Morris (Shaw Family)

Issue 138 (Vol. 36, Number 1), February 2018

Jardines – an Illustrious Family
The Nottingham Trade (from SMH, 30 May 1850)
Rockley News – Brownlow, Shore & Branson families
Holy Trinity Church, Kelso
ASLC Accounts for year ending 31 December 2017
Calais Cakes
Radical Nottingham – Richard Lander
Nottingham Society – the Hosiers and Lace Manufacturers

Issue 139 (Vol. 36, Number 2), May 2018

Oral History Workshop – Saturday 19 May 2018
The Nottingham Trade (from SMH, 30 May 1850) – continued from Feb
St James, Morpeth
Edward Lander – Lace Machine Owner?
Daniel Diggle – Luddite
Twisthands
French Almanac 1847

Issue 140 (Vol. 36, Number 3), August 2018

The new ASLC Website
Article from the New York Times, 10 March 1909 - Calais lacemaker firm (Caderas and Ozanne) plans move to America
The Church of England in St Pierre
A Treasure from the Migration Museum in Adelaide - The Navarino and Tertius Hannam and Sarah Holmes
The Nutt Family of Devon (James Nutt and Agincourt) – Richard Nutt
Lace, the Bourgeois of Calais
Calais 1816-2016
Cape Otway and its Lighthouse – Gillian Kelly

Issue 141 (Vol. 36, Number 4), November 2018

Christmas with Guest Speaker Christine Yeats
AGM with Guest Speaker Kerry Farmer
Richard and Eugenie Goldfinch – Cheryl Williss
In the Steps of Rose – June Howarth
The Calaisien Earthenware Factory of Pain, Bayley and Shirley
Relic from a Harpley Passenger – the dresser of Henry Longmire – Jessie Skye
From Calais to Hobart via the Old Bailey [Benjamin Dodsworth and Samuel Hall]
Out of Calais 1940
The Rogers Cousins – Judy Gifford, David Groves and Jean Coulton
A Letter from France, 7 August 1866 (Nutt family) - Carolyn Broadhead
Meet a Member: Robin Gordon OAM – Jim Longmire

Descendants of the Lacemakers of Calais